

Professional Development for Teachers

Aspects of Teaching English

2 weeks

30 lessons a week (45 minutes per lesson )

Maximum: 12 participants per class

This very practical course is designed to help overseas teachers of English to secondary school students and adults to refresh their teaching methodology.

Every session will focus on a different aspect of methodology such as:

- creative ideas for teaching grammar
- motivating students
- task-based learning
- dealing with 'difficult' language

In addition, you will have plenty of opportunities to develop your general language skills and review aspects of contemporary Britain.

Language, Methodology and Culture

2 weeks

30 lessons a week (45 minutes per lesson )

Maximum: 12 participants per class

This course is designed for overseas teachers of English who particularly need to develop their level of English and wish to learn more about British life and culture. In addition, there will be some opportunity to develop your range of teaching techniques.

The aim of the course is to:

- develop your general language skills
- explore modern British life and culture
- provide you with a refreshing and practical look at current language teaching ideas and develop your teaching techniques

English in the Primary Classroom

2 weeks

30 lessons a week (45 minutes per lesson )

Maximum: 12 participants per class

This course is designed to help primary specialists teach English in the primary classroom.

Although the main focus is on language teaching methodology, you will have plenty of opportunity to improve your fluency and knowledge of English.

The aim of the course is to enable you to:

- develop your understanding and knowledge of the English language
- gain confidence and fluency for speaking English in the primary classroom
- select, devise and adapt materials for the primary classroom
- select and adapt English songs, games and stories appropriate to the primary classroom

Teaching Business English

2 weeks

30 lessons a week (45 minutes per lesson )

Maximum: 12 participants per class

This very practical course is designed for all teachers of business English.

The aim of the course is to enable you to:

- develop a comprehensive understanding of the business world
- extend your range of techniques for teaching business English

Content and Language Integrated Learning

2 weeks

30 lessons a week (45 minutes per lesson)

Maximum: 12 participants per class

This course is designed for all teachers involved in the teaching and learning of English through the use of the target language to teach other subjects across the curriculum.

The aims of this very practical course are to look at:

- key principles of CLIL
- syllabus/course design
- materials development and evaluation
- testing and assessment
- language development for both teachers and students
- new ideas and practical activities for skills development

