

Teacher Training 2010 ENGLISH FOR PRIMARY TEACHERS

Course Dates:	Course Location:	Course Fees:	Course Code:
4 July – 17 July 2010	The University of Kent at Canterbury	£855	TEP28
1 Aug – 14 Aug 2010	The University of Kent at Canterbury	£855	TEP32

Target Audience

- Non-native teachers of English or teachers of other subjects, who want to update their English language, develop their confidence in using the language, and expand their vocabulary and range of expression
- You should have at least a lower intermediate (not elementary or beginner) level of English

Course Summary

Teachers who work in non-English speaking countries often find they 'lose touch' with what is appropriate in English or with new developments in the language.

The course is of a highly practical and participatory nature. You will be engaged in and challenged by a variety of fruitful activities. Although very much a language improvement course, many of the approaches you experience on this course will benefit your own teaching.

Programme of the training activities

- Revisiting and building up lexical & grammatical areas, especially those which cause difficulties
- Work on English phonology including sounds, stress, rhythm and intonation
- A look at socio-cultural aspects of English and how changes in culture influence changes in the language
- Studying English through authentic materials, e.g. newspaper articles, TV programmes, etc.
- Building confidence in listening to spoken English, including a wide variety of accents
- Building fluency and confidence in spoken English
- Learning aspects of English that are traditionally "untaught"
- Projects in the English-speaking environment (if the group wishes to do so)

Description of training content:

Preparation

Each applicant to send in action plan 4 weeks before the course outlining hopes and objectives for achievement as a result of attending this course.

Objectives

The course aims to provide the participants with opportunities to revitalise their knowledge and use of English and to reinforce their confidence in using the language

Expected results

As a result of attending this course, the participants will be more knowledgeable, confident and fluent users of English.

Is this the right course for me?

- Yes, if you want to expand your levels of knowledge and confidence

If this is not the right course for you, please consider the following:

- English for Adults (General English) - if you want to learn English with students from different professions
- Teaching Advanced Students - if you are already at an advanced level and you wish to improve your English and also wish to learn a variety of creative techniques for teaching advanced students

- English for Teaching Other Subjects in English - if you want a course which combines methodology with language improvement
- Methodology for Teaching Spoken Grammar and Language if you want to focus more on the ever increasing influence of corpus based linguistics

NOTE this course is not suitable for teachers with an elementary level. We invite these teachers to follow one of our English for Adults course.

Programme of the training activities day by day:

Please note this is an example of a daily programme. course content may often be usefully adapted to Incorporate the needs of each specific group.

Week 1

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
AM 9.00– 10.30	Introductions and group bonding. Ice breaking and group formation activities	Grammar. Presentation and practice of features of spoken grammar	Vocabulary. Current idioms which are in genuine use	Grammar. The grammar of words. The Lexical Approach	Vocabulary. Register and connotation
11.00– 12.30	Needs analysis and goal setting	Listening and exchanging information. (Jigsaw listening)	Pronunciation workshop 1. Problem sounds and connected speech	Speaking practice. Learner based questionnaires. Feedback on language use	Listening. Extensive and intensive. The BBC News
PM 14.00- 15.30	Discussion activity. Metaphors for language learning. Feedback on language use	Reading and speaking. Discussion based on an authentic text. Feedback on language use	Listening. Cooperative story telling	The importance of vague language in English. Presentation and practice	Review of week one and goal setting for week two

Week 2

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
AM 9.00– 10.30	Speaking Practice Finding similarities and differences in weekend activities. Feedback on language used	Textual analysis How language is reflected through culture	Interviewing a guest trainer. Question formation and note taking	Grammar workshop Troubleshooting areas of difficulty for the particular group	A range of productive fluency and accuracy games
11.00– 12.30	Creative writing Learner generated texts	Listening and viewing. Analysis of a film excerpt	Feedback on above and analysis of language used	Speaking practice. Examination and discussion of learning styles	Self help strategies For maintaining and improving course participants' English
PM 14.00- 15.30	Pronunciation workshop 2 Stress and intonation practice	Creative role play and drama based activities	What is fluency and ways of encouraging it in the classroom?	Using authentic materials in the classroom effectively. A practical workshop	Course review, including evaluation and farewells

Recommended reading: Please note it is not necessary to buy or bring these books to the course.

“Cambridge Grammar of English” R. Carter & M. McCarthy (CUP) 2006

“Language and Creativity” R. Carter (Routledge) 2004

“English for the Teacher” M. Spratt (CUP) 1994

Type of the certification awarded in the language of the training:

Attendance certificate detailing topics covered and course content.